

HARTLAND & KERNOW

Bell tents — lower hillside

Hartland and Kernow — two bell tents on their own private decks partway up the hillside, with the beds made up before you arrive and gas cooking facilities opposite them.

Sleeps up to 4 · A double bed and two single beds · Dogs welcome

The lower hillside is where two of our seven bell tents stand: Hartland and Kernow. This page is the overview of that stretch of the park — each tent has a page of its own, linked below, with its deck, its outlook and its own quirks written up properly.

Both have a private deck with a chiminea on it, matting underfoot, a double bed and two singles, all made up with bedding and towels before you arrive. They sit high enough for a view over the valley but without the climb up to the upper hillside — the middle option, and the easier one if you're carrying bags or walking a dog up. Each deck has room to sit out with a coffee and watch the light change over the fields.

These two share gas cooking facilities, sited directly opposite the tents and used by nobody else on the park. There is still no cooking inside the tents themselves, and the cook deck at the facilities is down on the valley floor if you'd rather use them. Showers and toilets are in that same block, shared with the rest of the park and open around the clock. The bell tents run from April to September.

Where it sits: Hartland and Kernow sit together on the lower hillside, raised above the valley floor but without the climb up to the upper tents.

Good to know before you book

- The bell tents run from April to September. Outside those months the lodges, the school bus and the Airstream stay open, and camping pitches run in their own seasons.
- Bedding and towels are provided and the beds are made up. Bring your own food.
- Gas cooking facilities sit directly opposite these two tents and are shared between Hartland and Kernow. They are outside — there is still no cooking inside the tents themselves.
- The cook deck at the facilities is down on the valley floor as well, shared with everyone on the park, if both tents want the gas at once or you'd simply rather cook under cover.
- Showers and toilets are in the block a short walk from the tents and shared with the rest of the park. They're open 24 hours.
- It's a gentle rise up from the valley floor to reach these two — less of a pull than the upper hillside tents, but not flat.
- Four in a bell tent is still plenty spacious: one round canvas room with a double and two singles in it.
- Dogs are welcome. Please keep them on a lead no longer than two metres, exercise them in the area provided, and don't leave them unattended. We can't accept Rottweilers, Dobermans, Bull Mastiffs, Pit Bull Terriers or their crosses.
- Arrive from 3pm, leave by 10am.
