

THE SHEPHERD'S HUT

Millook

A characterful shepherd's hut for up to four, with a TV, a fridge and kettle, and its own private shower and toilet a few steps outside.

Sleeps up to 4 · A double bed at one end and two singles in their own small room · Dogs welcome

Millook is a shepherd's hut sleeping up to four. Inside there's a double bed at one end and two single beds in their own small room, with bedding and towels provided, so it works for a small family or two couples who don't mind being close company.

The middle of the hut is where you'll spend the evenings: a pair of deep armchairs, a television, a fridge and a kettle for the morning brew. Outside there's a furnished spot on the deck to sit out with a coffee and listen to the valley.

It sits in its own corner of the park, close to the river, with a private shower and toilet in a pod just outside the door — yours for the stay and shared with nobody else. Low-key, characterful, and warm when the weather turns.

Where it sits: It sits in its own corner of the valley, close to the river, on gravel with a deck and a bit of lawn beside it.

Good to know before you book

- The shower and toilet are just outside the hut rather than inside it — but they are private. They're reserved for Millook guests and shared with nobody else on the park.
- There's no cooking inside the hut, but Millook has its own gas cooker on its deck. The fridge and kettle inside cover cold food and hot drinks.
- Four in a shepherd's hut is companionable rather than roomy. The two singles have their own little room, but the rest is one shared space.
- Steps up to the veranda door, so it isn't step-free.
- Dogs are welcome. Please keep them on a lead no longer than two metres, exercise them in the area provided, and don't leave them unattended. We can't accept Rottweilers, Dobermans, Bull Mastiffs, Pit Bull Terriers or their crosses.
- Arrive from 3pm, leave by 10am.
