

THE FAMILY LODGE

Mordros

A multi-family lodge for up to twelve with its own hot tub — built for the big get-togethers, two miles inland from Bude.

Sleeps up to 12 · A multi-family layout, with bedrooms pairing a double bed and a set of bunks · Dogs welcome

Mordros is Cornish for the sound of the sea, and it is the biggest stay we have — a multi-family lodge built for the get-togethers that do not fit anywhere else. It sleeps up to twelve, so two or three generations can be under one roof without being on top of each other.

There is a large kitchen with room to cook for the whole group, a hot tub of its own outside, and bedrooms that pair a double bed with a set of bunks, so the children can share and the adults still get their own space. Everything is self-contained: your own shower and toilet, your own kitchen, your own door.

It is the obvious choice for a special occasion: grandparents, parents and the children all under one roof, with the valley to roam and Bude and the coast a couple of miles away.

Where it sits: A long, single-storey lodge on its own gravel drive, with parking right outside the door and the rest of the valley a short walk away.

Good to know before you book

- Arrive from 3pm and leave by 10am on your last morning, the same as our other lodges.
- Twelve is the maximum. If your group is bigger, plenty of people take Mordros plus a lodge or two — send us a message and we'll line the dates up.
- Dogs are welcome. Keep them on a lead no longer than 2 metres, exercise them in the area provided, and please don't leave them unattended in the lodge.
- We can't accept Rottweilers, Dobermans, Bull Mastiffs, Pit Bull Terriers or crosses of those breeds.
- Entry to the park is through an ANPR number-plate barrier, with CCTV covering the park 24 hours a day.
